MOVEMENT UNITED FOR SUPER ACTION (MUSA) · FUTURE YETU

Data Privacy Notice

How MUSA protects your personal data · Version 1.0 · October 2026 · Party code 813

MUSA (Movement United for Super Action) is the data controller for the personal data in its membership register and on musa.ke and membership.musa.ke. This notice explains how we handle your data under the Data Protection Act, 2019.

1. What we collect and why

We collect membership details (name, sex, date of birth, National ID, phone, location, ethnicity, special-interest group and, optionally, email, religion and postal address) to register and administer membership, submit records to ORPP, and communicate with members. We also keep basic technical records (such as login times and IP addresses) to protect accounts and prevent fraud.

2. Lawful basis

Your consent, and MUSA's legal obligations under the Political Parties Act, 2011 and its regulations.

3. How we protect it

- Access is limited to authorised officials who have signed a confidentiality agreement.
- Phone numbers, emails and ID numbers are masked on screen; viewing or exporting full details is recorded in an audit log.
- Accounts are protected by passwords and verification codes; the system is served over secure (HTTPS) connections.
- Data is never sold or used for commercial marketing.

4. Your rights

- To be informed of how your data is used.
- To access your data — log in at membership.musa.ke to view it.
- To correct false or misleading data — members update their own details in the member portal; party staff cannot edit members' records. If your name, ID number or date of birth is wrong, resign and register again with correct details.
- To object to processing and to have your data deleted (by resigning).

5. Retention

Record	Kept for
Active member	As long as you remain a member
Resigned member	7 days, then permanently deleted
Registration never verified	30 days, then deleted

6. Contact and complaints

Data Protection contact: dataprotection@musa.ke. If you are not satisfied with our response, you may complain to the Office of the Data Protection Commissioner (www.odpc.go.ke).
