MOVEMENT UNITED FOR SUPER ACTION (MUSA) · FUTURE YETU

Resignation Policy

How to resign and what happens to your data · Version 1.0 · October 2026 · Party code 813

Membership of MUSA is voluntary. Under Article 5.5 of the MUSA Constitution, a member ceases to be one upon written resignation, with effect from the date it is received. This policy explains how to resign.

1. How to resign from MUSA

1. Online: log in at membership.musa.ke → Resign membership, give a reason (optional) and confirm with the code sent to you; or
2. In writing: send a signed letter to your Branch or to the MUSA Secretariat (P.O. Box 4503-20100, Nakuru, or info@musa.ke) stating your full name, National ID number and membership number.

2. Update the official ORPP register

The Office of the Registrar of Political Parties keeps the official register. To complete your resignation there, log in to orpp.ecitizen.go.ke or dial 509# and choose Resign from a political party. You will receive an SMS confirmation.

3. What happens next

Your record is retained for seven (7) days to allow party officials to review and process the resignation. After that, it is permanently deleted from MUSA's systems, in line with the Data Protection Act, 2019. Your membership number and referral history are deleted with it.

- Resignation does not cancel any outstanding obligations to the party (Constitution, Article 5.5.1(a)).
- Any party property in your custody must be returned.
- Changed your mind within the 7 days? Contact info@musa.ke.

4. Party office holders seeking election

A member holding a County or Branch party office who intends to seek election to Parliament or a County Assembly must resign from that office in writing to the National Executive Committee at least one month before party nominations (Constitution, Article 7.16.1).

5. Joining MUSA from another party

Kenyan law permits membership of only one political party. Resign from your current party on eCitizen or *509#, then register with MUSA (party code 813) at membership.musa.ke or via *509#.

6. Correcting registration errors

If your name, National ID number or date of birth was entered incorrectly, resign and register again with the correct details, as party staff cannot edit members' records.
