MOVEMENT UNITED FOR SUPER ACTION (MUSA) · FUTURE YETU

Terms & Conditions

Use of musa.ke and membership.musa.ke · Version 1.0 · October 2026 · Party code 813

These Terms apply to everyone who uses musa.ke and the MUSA membership portal membership.musa.ke. By using these sites or registering as a member, you agree to them.

1. Eligibility for membership

- You must be a Kenyan citizen aged 18 years or above, with a valid National ID / Maisha number.
- You must not be a member of another registered political party. If you are, resign through ORPP (eCitizen or *509#) before joining MUSA.
- You must accept the MUSA Constitution, Code of Conduct and lawful decisions of party organs.

2. Accurate information

You must give true and complete information. One person may hold only one membership. Registering on behalf of another person without their consent, or using another person's ID number, is prohibited and may be reported to the authorities.

3. Your account

- Keep your password private; you are responsible for activity on your account.
- You may view and update only your own details.
- Referral links are personal. Fake or duplicate sign-ups are not counted and may lead to suspension of referral credit.

4. Acceptable use

Do not use the sites to spread misinformation or disinformation, hate speech, incitement or attacks on other parties or individuals; attempt to access other people's data; or disrupt the systems.

5. Party documents

Summaries of party documents are public. Full versions are provided to members or on request, for information only, and may not be altered or presented as official MUSA positions without authorisation.

6. Membership fees

Any fees or subscriptions applicable to a membership type will be communicated by the party secretariat. MUSA never asks you to pay an individual to register you.

7. Expressions of interest

Submitting interest to volunteer or vie for a seat does not amount to nomination. Nominations follow the MUSA Constitution and Election and Nomination Rules.

8. Changes and contact

MUSA may update these Terms; the current version is published on musa.ke. Questions: info@musa.ke.
